The performers will be unable to watch the performance and do not need a ticket, as they will be in the dressing rooms/back stage the entire performance.

Can I bring my baby to sit on my lap?

No babies are permitted to sit on laps in the audience. If taking a younger child to see the performance, please be aware that all children need to be in a seat, and need to purchase a ticket. Touch of Class Dance Studio spends a lot of time and energy making this performance as professional as possible. We ask you not to bring babies/younger children to the recital if they are not old enough to enjoy the show.

Can I get my tickets next to those of a friend/relative who also goes to Touch of Class?

Absolutely! Just make sure that you place the order together online.

Will the studio keep a record of my ticket numbers?

Yes, Touch of Class will have a list of all tickets sold according to account and student names. This will enable the TOCD staff to find you in your seat in the event that there is a backstage "emergency." You can relax and enjoy the show knowing that we can find you if we need you!!!

How do I know in which show my child is supposed to perform?

Class performance schedules are posted in the studio and online. The teacher for each class will also confirm this information during the observation classes.
